19	Whether the magic will work online. But overwhelmingly - as in all these other events - just very curious about what will happen.	1/4/2021 8:57 AM
20	How it works and how intense the interaction will be	1/4/2021 7:04 AM
21	seeking a response to my priority which is finding out how people outside the mainstream (Western educated, analytic-rational) are responding to the opening question (i.e., how they view the current crisis)	1/4/2021 1:36 AM
22	whether we can make an online syntegration work	1/4/2021 12:14 AM
23	I am curious about the difference it is going to make in my work life and personal life.	1/3/2021 11:42 PM
24	how the logistics work for video-based Syntegration HOW to market Syntegration	1/3/2021 11:35 PM
25	How well it can create coherence out of our collective intelligence.	1/3/2021 11:23 AM
26	Will an online syntegration provide a useful and deeply engaging structure for remote collaboration?	1/3/2021 11:08 AM
27	I am curious about how Stafford Beer's visionary ideas can be moved on with the technology we now have - the current 'crisis' has created near-perfect conditions/impetus for this experiment. I am curious to be part of the experience and learning with a group of like-minded people. I am curious to see how the experiment plays out in terms of my experience of it and whether the reverberation effect is indeed palpable. I am particularly curious to see how the learning from this experiment may be taken forward as a learning exercise, influencing others, directing research programmes and be applied in practice for the social good. I am curious about the interface between this exercise and other ones being undertaken, motivated by the global pandemic situation.	1/3/2021 9:24 AM

1	A successful eSyn that can be used worldwide.	1/6/2021 12:12 PM
2	If there is energy set free to move the lab situation to upscale within 6 months. My vision was always since VW, that VW as hughe Org could step up and offer the hub to move the world (it's a 600tsd people org and they have their own Syn delivery teams in the meantime.... they could convince other large global players to engage and together reach critical mass for global transformation; it's about emergent properties of the system at hand and VW is one significant element and the CEO even goes public with his success story. I know this is far reaching, if you come from an anti capitalism and anti business thinking world, but it's the world I come from and I have seen and I respect the "result ability" and creativity of the business community. On the other hand I have seen endless examples of the exact opporsite outside business (there is no well functioning cybernetics outside business org, because it's corrupted by lack of a customer who can decide to buy or not buy in many cases; algedonic signals are not heard or down played)	1/6/2021 11:32 AM
3	It worked ! Lots of enthusiams to do more of the same, develop the protocol.	1/6/2021 11:19 AM
4	The community is inspired to further develop this and other metaphorum related practices in a true open source / commons fashion.	1/6/2021 10:48 AM
5	participant engagement and jumping in to help, tolerance of learning together	1/6/2021 10:46 AM
6	development of a basis for potentializing dialogical results for diversified future use and further development - facilitation of a temporal continuity basis for continuing asynchrone collaborations into the future and continuing to develop understanding of the lead question and its successors, through the effective use of the dialogical complexity that the format offers; identification of ways to extend the assertions of requisite variety afforded by the geometric formalization of dialogical interfaces into the informatic haze of the Anthropocene and the establishment of an accompanying formal code of ethics for same said extensions, which expressly identifies and prohibits modalities of application inconsistent with the self-determination of sentient beings and the compassionate treatment of all life	1/5/2021 9:11 PM
7	A larger circle of friends committed to making social system tools widely available in formats that non-specialists can use them	1/5/2021 11:09 AM
8	Same or as good Reverberation quality as in F2F protocol. Reliable and simple to use IT support/platform	1/5/2021 11:02 AM

11	Seeing it create a cohesive and coherent answer embarrassing a wide perspective of views	1/5/2021 5:21 AM
12	If it worked	1/4/2021 6:53 PM
13	Additional connections with my learning and appreciations; contribution towards opportunities; fuel for thought; quality encounters.	1/4/2021 5:21 PM
14	If the process goes smoothly and there is real engagement	1/4/2021 4:10 PM
15	The amount of new learning I acquire and new people I learn with.	1/4/2021 3:46 PM
16	To grasp the nuts and bolts of managing a collaborative virtual scenario	1/4/2021 2:29 PM
17	That work networks could be formed to articulate them to the strategies of my university	1/4/2021 11:02 AM
18	with a set structure and final document with all the ideas	1/4/2021 11:02 AM
19	Being able to contrite to the magic.	1/4/2021 8:57 AM
20	If we find an engaging way and flow to do the integration over the internet.	1/4/2021 7:04 AM
21	Succeeding in ensuring inclusion of marginal peoples and their views in the exercise to synthesize learnings from current crisis	1/4/2021 1:36 AM

23	lasting the distance with meaningful content	1/3/2021 11:35 PM
24	If I find myself part of a group working to actively build a world organised according to viable systems principles.	1/3/2021 11:23 AM
25	Managing to participate in all the sessions, and having productive conversations.	1/3/2021 11:08 AM
26	I feel honoured to be taking part in this experiment. All will learn from the experience. Success to me is the simple act of paying attention to forms of social learning in order to learn together. Therefore, whatever happens, the fact that it has happened as a result of a commitment by a group of people is a sign of success. My expectations about success are flexible. In the longer-term, managing to make the spirit of the approach appealing and do-able generally would mark a 'big' success for me, as my outlook is guided from my experience of practice (local government), where people are deemed to be too busy to think for themselves, let alone together... therefore ambitions to contribute to radical shifts remain a necessary component of success. (We have to keep plugging away at this, however hard that may be)	1/3/2021 9:24 AM
27	Having something of practical use to take away and share.	1/3/2021 7:31 AM
28	The above	1/3/2021 6:43 AM
29	Level of connection compared with face to face events. Visibility of emerging / emerged meet model. Forward path committed to after event.	1/3/2021 6:21 AM

31	To advance significantly on the digital syntegegration methodology for applying it soon	1/2/2021 9:59 PM
32	Real breakthroughs I can operationalise myself	1/2/2021 6:03 PM

18	Just to let you know that my broadband connection isn't too great here! It is slow and liable to disappearing completely for a few minutes from time to time. So I may disappear at a moment's notice and will do my best to return asap. I will keep this under review and let you know if it becomes a problem. It was OK during the December event, so fingers are crossed. Just a comment about what a really impressive amount of work has already gone into this in terms of preparation and excellent design. THE OPENING SONG. Also, that when I've looked at the great info kindly provided you re. process/software etc. it's one of those things when I've had to decide - I'll prepare as best I can and work my way through this as it happens, don't panic, you don't need a perfect knowledge to start off with. That's when I abandon the references/software training and listen to the opening song again. That makes me feel good again and reminds me why I want to do this! So that song is just great :)	1/3/2021 9:24 AM
19	It's too late now, but I would have suggested avoiding Miro. This delegates too much processing burden to the browser so works very stodgily if a large number of browser tabs and windows are open.	1/3/2021 7:31 AM
20	I'm very happy to participate of this exercise for I'm very interested in using the methodology afterwards but as I'm not a member of the metaphorum group the opening question sounds a little bit strange for me. I would have changed it for "How can we participants of this Syntegration capture the learning...."	1/2/2021 9:59 PM
21	It took me about fifteen minutes of exploring to find the actual question (on the Miro board)	1/2/2021 6:03 PM
